

Volunteer Position: The Facilitator

About Trico LivingWell:

Trico LivingWell is a retirement living community in Kingsland, Calgary and Canada's first aging in place community pursuing the vigorously vetted WELL v2™ Certification from International WELL Building Institute - a premier framework and performance-based system for buildings with features that advance human health and well-being worldwide. Trico LivingWell offers a campus of care and services to independent living, assisted living, and memory care accommodations respectful to individual rights, choices, needs, abilities and enjoyment.

We are always looking for volunteers to join our community. Our success is your success. Want to join our team?

Volunteer Role Summary:

Reporting to the Recreational Programming Lead, the Volunteer Facilitator would create and facilitate their very own recreation programs, with our residents. Whether you teach a topic, lead a game, or put on a performance, we want you to share your passion with our community!

Key Responsibilities:

- Assess, plan, implement and evaluate engaging recreation programs in large and small group settings as well as 1:1.
- Coordinate supplies and preparations with the Recreational Programming Lead.
- Document participation levels and resident feedback to evolve programs.
- Other duties and tasks as required.

Qualifications:

- Have a passion you are able and willing to share with our community.
- Good organizational, time management, leadership, and decision-making skills.
- Must be fluent in both written and spoken English, other language proficiencies will be considered an asset.
- A current (within 6 months) Police Clearance and Vulnerable Sector Screening.
- Trico LivingWell provides care for at-risk client population, and we are committed to keeping our residents and staff safe. All volunteers are required to be vaccinated against both COVID and the influenza variants. Efforts will be made to accommodate anyone who requires accommodation for medical or religious reasons but not guaranteed given the nature of our workplace.